ERICKA NICOLE MALONE

Ericka Nicole Malone is a quadruple-threat as an actress, writer, director and producer, which up to this point, has often been a man's territory, but the buzz of an emergence of a female voice is beginning to be heard around the country.

Ericka has written, directed and produced more than nine stage plays through her production company Ericka Nicole Malone Entertainment, LLC along with her business partner Phillip Robinson, including, the smash touring musical stage play "In Love With Tyrone".

Her provocative writing style and keen ability to connect with her audience makes Ericka an unmistakable figure in entertainment and is only second to her unique talent as a screenwriter.

She toured for 20 years, Ericka began her screenwriting debut of the television sitcom pilot "Ward of the State"- A rich heiress is forced to move in with her middle class daughter after her fourth husband suddenly dies and leaves her penniless. The series helms the iconic Janet Hubert (Fresh Prince of Bel Air), Aloma Wright (Suits) and Vanessa A Williams (Soul Food.)

Her latest project is "Remember Me" : The Mahalia Jackson Story - A new biopic of Gospel legend Mahalia Jackson starring R&B legend Ledisi, actors Columbus Short, Janet Hubert, Wendy RaQuel Robinson, Keith David, Jailen Josey, Shaleah Nikole and Keith Robinson

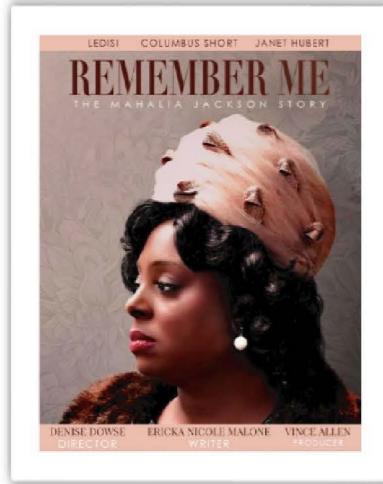

Ericka's "Dreams From The Edge", an original short film starring comedian Mark Curry, Bernadette Stanis and Alexia Faith Roberts was up for consideration for the NAACP Image Award for Best Original Short Form in 2022. The film is about a young Black woman's journey to make it in Hollywood amidst many challenges that face her.

As President of Ericka Nicole Malone Entertainment along with her business partner Phillip Robinson, Ericka has several other projects in development including animation, live action and theatrical productions.

Ericka is becoming one of the most prolific screenwriters and producers in Hollywood and this is only just beginning.

REMEMBER ME

Starring Ledisi & Columbus Short

"Remember Me" is an inspirational portrayal of Mahalia Jackson's remarkable life and her ascension to the "Queen of Gospel".

Mahalia was not only an iconic gospel singer breaking racial and gender barriers, she was also a Civil rights activist who understood the power of her position in the Movement.

"Remember Me" explores Mahalia's unbreakable relationship with "Dr. Martin Luther King Jr." (Columbus Short) and her integral role in the Civil rights movement.

WARD OF THE STATE

Starring Aloma Wright & Vanessa Williams

Ward of the State is about a formerly-rich heiress who is forced to live with her daughter and son-in-law, after her husband dies suddenly, leaving her penniless after a bad business deal.

It is a fun half-hour comedy series set in Pasadena, California. It takes a comedic look at the daily social issues of a professional African-American family including dating and marriage and important economic issues.

DREAMS FROM THE EDGE

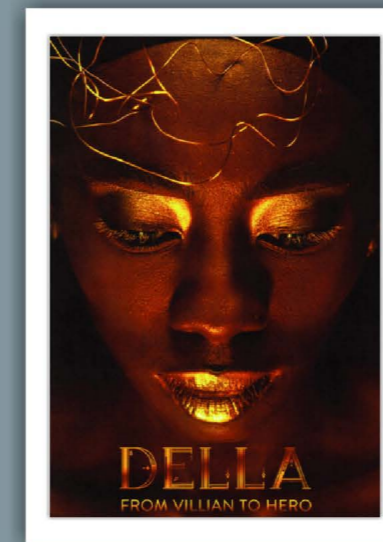

Starring Mark Curry, Bernadette Stanis & Alexia Faith Roberts

Selected for consideration for the NAACP Image Award for Best Original Short Form in 2022, Dreams from the Edge is a compelling story about a young Black woman's journey to make it in Hollywood amidst many challenges that face her.
